Exclusively Offering Matthew C. Hoffmann Jewelry Design

We've experienced an exciting year at Ten Fine Jewelry, our first full year in the historic Nickels Arcade. This space has offered us open display windows, private design room and production space in the same store. Thus, we have become extremely efficient.

The designs in our cases reflect the creativity we are feeling right now. Our new work is clean and crisp, with lots of exotic gemstones and fossils. This jewelry feels so good to me I'm ready to burst.

We currently have in stock the largest collection of finished jewelry in our history. I encourage all of you to visit and see our new creations.

Sincerely, Matthew C. Hoffmann
